THE MEMPHEW SHECH.

The St. Louis Club Score but One Run -An Exciting Game-Good Pitching Meets its Reward.

The game between the St. Louis Reds and Memphis club at Olympic park vesterday afternoon attracted quite a good and most appreciative attendance The Memphis club substituted John Colbert in place of the short-stop, Jackson, who was absent. Despite the expectation of a big score and easy victory by the St. Louis club, there was much nterest felt as to what the Memphis nine would be able to accomplish. There was much speculation on this subject, and while the majority predicted that the Memphis nine would not score as much as the Memphia Reds, yet some were of opinion that the home club Serman Catholic church, corner of would do better. However this was, first, while Leech and Meath struck out. The St. Louis took the bat. Collins struck hard, gained first base, and then second on passed ball, and Redmond made first by a ball cast Boro. The two foul tip, and Collins was put out trying to steal home. Redmond reached third, but Galvin went out on a foul tip to Ellick. When Collins led off with his base hit the crowd cheered, and this was renewed when Redmond struck for first. The Rads evidently were confident of an easy thing, and showed this in the way per of Chatlesion avenue and Adams | they tracked the bases. In the second street, is being finished in excellent inning Nicholson and Jones went out on foul bounds, but Colbert got first on a base-hit over second. Rolfus ended the matter by fouling out to Dolan. Morgan, of the St. Louis, went out on shortstop's throw to first. Dillon was caught out by Jones in left field after a long run, but Dillon struck hard to center and gained second on a low throw muffed by Boro. Gleason struck out and didn't try to hit the sphere. The St. Louis club went out on two flies to cond and center and a foul to Ellick. In the fourth inning Leach got to first on a passed ball, but was caught napping and put out while standing ten feet from the base and calling "judgment on a balk." The next two men, Meath and Boro, went out on flies. Galvin, of the St. Louis, besed first, stole second and was put out to third. Morgan went out on a fly to Boro, Croft failing to reach first. In the fifth inning Nicholson went out on a foul, Colbert on a fly, and Rolfus struck, but was put out on first The St. Louis club went out on two fouls

S. MOSBY, S. P. READ, C. W. GOYER. GRAND JURY REPORT.

The Poorhouse, the County Jail, and County Affairs Generally.

The criminal court vesterday received the following report from the grand jury and then adjourned to the next term: To Hon. John D. Adams, Judge Criminal

DEAR SIR -Before adjourning, we deire to report having visited the county workhouse on President island, the ounty poorhouse, the county pesthouse, the county jail and city stationhouse. We found the stationhouse, county workhouse and county poorhouse in excellent condition and under splendid management. We regret to say that we did not find the county jail in ruth condition as it should be kept. The larger portion of the cells and the bedding were in a very filthy condition, and the propand decent bedding is furnished, and the calls be required to be kept clean. The grand jury would also call the attention of the proper authorities to the cage or cell used to keep prisoners in during the setting of the court. This was found to be in a most terribly filthy condition-a disgrace to any communlty, and should be improved or removed. The county pesthouse buildings are well arranged and in good condition; but the grand jary, being imbued with the prevailing spirit of reform, feel compelled to call the attention of the proper authorities and of the taxpayers of this county to some extracts from the official report of W. H. Hoegel, Erq., superintendent of this establishment. From said report it appears that, during the past quarter, this institution has had four patients-three males and one female, all colored-211 of whom have teen discharged, the average time of each being about 35 days. The expense of the institution for the quarter, 23 per bill to our quarterly court, for supplies, is $587; to this must be added $300, salary of superintendent and physician, making a total of $887 for the quarter, or $221 75 for each patient admitted that this establishment has cost the taxpayers of this county. Among the item? comprising said bill we find 232 pounds bacon, ISS pounds beef, 14 chickens, at $5 per dozen; 5 gallons whisky, at $1 per gallon; 150 pounds sugar, 50 pounds rice, 50 pounds coffee, 3 barrels flour, 3 barrels meal; butter, eggs and milk, bought from W. H. Hoegel, $14; 5 cords of wood, at $450 per cord, bought from W. H. Hoegel; I female nurse, at $30 per month for 2 months; 1 male nurse, at $45 per month for 14 months; 1 cook, at $35 per month, for three months. The grand jury, realizing the great desire of all our citizens for reform, think it useless to make further comments on this subject. In our examination of the magistrates' dockets we found Esquire P. J. Quigley as showing no date of the crass tried from December 18, 1875. Esquire Spellman's docket is in such a condition and so indefinite that the grand jury could make nothing of it, nor could Es quire Spellman, when called upon, explain it himself. E-quire Miller's docket s not kept written up in such order as the law requires. The grand jury would a'so report that Esquires Miller and Spellman are in default 23 to their reports and settlements with the State for revenues collected by them. They would also report that, from an examination of the magistrates' dockets, they find the county is compelled to pay large amounts to the magistrates and special constables ar costs on cases brought un-der the small offense laws. For example: the allowances on this score at the September term, 1875, and January term, 1876, were $2112 70, while the receipts from the same source and time were

$529 15, showing a clear loss to the county of $1583 55. Before closing our report, we beg leave to call attention to the following con-densed report of General N. B. Forrest for the year ending July 1, 1876: Number of pris mers received at the workhouse for the year ending July 1, 1876, 224; average time of sentence and confinement, 175 days; cost to the county for boarding 224 prisoners 175 days, each at 40c per day, $15,680; amount due the county for lease of convicts for the year ending July 1, 1876, 14,783 days labor at 10c, $1478 30; actual amount saved to the county, $17,158 30. The grand jury desire to return thanks to your honor, Attorney General L. E. Wright, Assistant Attorney-General

Gammon, Clerk Perkins and Constable George Williams, for courtesies and attention shown them. K. J. B. L. Winn,

James Holmes, A. G. Futher, J. M. Stalen, J. L. Sharp, J. B. Daniel, J. H. Sm¹th. . H. Bryson, JUDGE ADAMS'S REMARKS. After receiving the report, Judge Adams made a few remarks, in which he thanked the grand jury for their kind
